Special Notices.

Borrowing Money.

Borrowing money upon the installment plan is attended with these advantages: The loan can be paid in small monthly amounts which include the interest and part of the principal, so that by the expiration of the term it can be paid without any great inconvenience to the borrower. The rate of interest is generally lower. The expenses of obtaining a loan are less than those of many loans, and if it is borrowed upon good property, then it often happens that the rents will meet the monthly installments and the debts.

For further and other particulars inquire of W. H. J. BROOKS,
Agent for Savings and Loan Society,
No. 12 Spring Street.
May 10-11.

Money to loan at one per cent, in sums of $3,000 to $50,000. The undersigned announces with pleasure the expected arrival of Mr. John Archbold, of the San Francisco Savings Union. He comes for the purpose of lending some of the surplus funds of the society to individuals who are in need. Those who have need to borrow will do well to avail themselves of this opportunity. Applications will be received by the agent of the Bank, W. H. J. BROOKS,
No. 12 Spring Street.

Clock repairing a specialty. Mr. A. W. Pratt, a practical clock maker from the Ansonia Clock Manufacturing Co., and late adjuster for the National Clock Co. of San Francisco, has taken the new shop window at 39 Spring St., where he will repair clocks in a first-class manner. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Buy city lots planted with orange trees. Mr. Morgan now offers to the public at No. 4, Temple Block, Spring street, about one hundred fine residence lots, being about ten minutes walk from the Postoffice, each lot being planted with orange trees, five years old and in good condition. These lots are subdivisions of the "Thomas Tract," lying and fronting on the South side of First street, about one hundred and fifty yards from and East of the railroad to Wilmington. On the West the tract fronts on Hewitt street. Prices moderate. Terms easy. Enquire at the Real Estate office of G. W. Morgan, No. 4 Temple Block, Spring street. May 9-1m

Ladies' two-button kid gloves at $1 per pair; one-button bid at 87¢ cts. per pair. Extra heavy brown and bleached sheeting at 12¢ cts. per yard; good brown and bleached sheeting 10 yards for $1, at the Bazaar, corner Main and Requena streets, opposite the U. S. Hotel. ml:1m

One of the finest improvements in the city will be the re-building of the Lafayette Hotel. The whole of the back of the house is already being torn down, and the front will shortly be built up. The stores will be just half as large as they are now, and, as the Importer has a very large stock on hand, they will not have half room enough for their goods and in order to prevent them from being damaged by dirt and dust, they have decided to sell all their Spring goods at less than cost, and others, such as cottons, table-linen, etc., at exact cost. We advise all to call at the Importer and convince themselves of the great bargains. Such bargains they can never get again, and in order to prevent a great rush, we advise all to call early and take advantage of the building of the Lafayette Hotel. al:16

25 pieces summer poplins, reduced to 25 cts. per yard; 50 pieces grass cloth, reduced to 15 cts. per yard; Lawton Piquee Nanook Grenadines and other dress goods in great variety at the lowest price at the Bazaar, corner of Main and Requena streets, opp. U. S. Hotel. ml:1m

The auction sales of the Santa Gertrudes lands fixed for the 19th, 20th and 21st of the month have been unavoidably postponed in consequence of the illness of the surveyor and the managing agent Mr. Edward McLain. The postponement contemplates the sale of the property on the 26th, 27th and 28th of May. *ap17-1d

If you want a good suit of clothes for a little money, go to the Bazaar, corner of Main and Requena streets, and get one of those $12 suits, worth $17. ml:1m

THURSDAY, MAY 27, 1875.

Prismoidal Railroad.

We witnessed the test of this new invention near the new depot yesterday, rode on the car and pronounced it a success on a straight line. The constructor made a mistake in not making a curve on his experimental track, to show that it will turn a sharp curve. Everything else is all right. It is cheap and easily constructed. Vehicles can cross it much easier than they can cross a double track. It is of lighter draft and capable of bearing a heavy burden. But if it can be demonstrated that it will turn a sharp curve it is our opinion that the greatest advantage of the invention will be for steam cars to run through our mountainous country to the seaside valleys to bring the produce, the wood, the coal, etc., from regions where it would be impracticable to build even narrow-gauge railroad. This road can be run almost anywhere that a donkey can travel, and the grading would cost but little more than a foot-path. But it all depends upon its ability to turn a curve. Of course the parties interested will have that tested before they proceed to any considerable expense.

The Ground and the Ordinance.

Yesterday afternoon we visited San Fernando street and examined the ground over which the Main and Spring Street Railway are asking of the Council permission to lay down a track over which to run their cars. The company ask to cross the railroad track and run their road through the centre, or nearly the centre, of the street to within about 100 feet of the West end of the depot building, which is objected to by citizens using that street as a means of coming into and going out of the city. The ordinance which the Council is asked to pass give the street railway company the right to extend their track to a point opposite the depot building, where the unoccupied portion of the street is so narrow that if a street railroad track were laid in it it would be almost impossible for teams to pass on either side at times when the track was occupied by the cars. To this the people residing in the Eastern part of the city very properly object. Something has been said about there being no substantial difference between the original ordinance and the modification as it now stands. We find on examination that there really was no material difference. In the original document these words, written in ink, are enclosed in lead pencil brackets: "Thence along said street to a point opposite the depot of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company." On the margin of the sheet is written in pencil these words: "Thence along the East side of San Fernando street to a point opposite and half way between the two switch-lines of the S. P. R. R. Co." We do not say that any one contemplated doing it, but the ease with which the brackets and side note might have been erased, suggested the thought expressed the other day that the modified ordinance would prove to be about the same as the original.

That "Conclusive Statement."

In Tuesday's Express appears a communication signed by "A Citizen," which we presume means the President of the Main and Spring Street Railway Company giving the so-called other side of the question, involved in the ordinances now before the Council granting to the street railway company the right to lay a track across the Southern Pacific road, and by occupying the space opposite the new depot, so obstructs to nearly destroy that traveled thoroughfare. The only statement made in that communication, which really needs answering is that the space in question is seventy-five feet in width, in place of nine feet, as stated in the HERALD, and this statement is given the semblance of truth by an ingenious, though we shall show unsuccessful, effort to dodge the real question. "A Citizen" finds his seventy-five feet some distance West of the depot, and we find our nine feet opposite the depot, where the ordinance provides and where the street railway company undoubtedly wish to lay their track and run their cars. This is the sum total of the issue: "A Citizen" measures the space at a point some distance West of the depot over which the cars will pass, and we measure it opposite the depot, where the cars will stand. We oppose the proposition on a principle expressed by "A Citizen": "No class of men should be allowed, through selfish motives, to block up the wheels of progress and public improvement in a rapidly growing city like ours." The insinuation of "A Citizen" that the Express is doing an injury to itself by opposing the passage of the ordinance is, we suppose, intended to apply also to the HERALD. We appreciate the manifestation of solicitude, but in advocating the public welfare the HERALD is not in the habit of stopping to consider the effect its policy will have upon its subscription list. The HERALD had rather be right than own a whole street railroad and be wrong. We beg to assure the Express correspondent that in opposing this ordinance we are not evincing our contempt for the Council, and the intimation that such was our purpose fails to the ground when it is known that Councilman HUBER, the bitterest enemy of the Express, is the son of the widow and granddaughter of Mr. Hobbs of the firm of Hobbs, Hope & Co. It is supposed that after Sunday School was dismissed the sexton dragged the child into the room under the belfry, where he committed the bloody deed. No probable motive for the act is as yet assigned, with any degree of certainty.

The Great Trial.

NEW YORK, May 24th.—The Brooklyn court-room was crowded to-day,

Council and who never misses an opportunity to rain vituperative invective upon it, fought the passage of the ordinance as then before the Council, apparently on its injustice and general informality. And finally, if there is nothing but good contained in the ordinance, why the indecent haste to secure its passage? Good things will keep, and if there is no spring gun concealed beneath the specious wording of the document, why not wait until the facts are brought out and the subject discussed pro et con. There is no reason for haste, as the railroad depot is not yet finished and the thousands of men and women will not be subjected to the dust and danger which "A Citizen" so much dreads for some time. Let us start fair and continue on that line if we do not make quite so much money.

Fruit Growing.

We can heartily commend the efforts of our citizens in this branch of industry, but there is not as much doing as there ought to be in this line. Our climate and soil is all that could be asked to make this the best fruit growing country in the continent. Indeed, it should be the chief business of Southern California. It is true that until the last year or two the want of a market for fruit disheartened many persons, who turned their attention to cereals and other produce, but this is no longer the case. Since the fruit dryers were invented, the world has become our market, and if every acre in Los Angeles county were in orchard and every tree in full bearing, and every pound of fruit properly dried and put on the market, it would not meet the demand. There are a hundred times more demand for the fruits dried in these machines than the supply we now have, and it is rapidly increasing. All the navies and armies of the world want them. They are easy put up; will keep any length of time, and there is never any danger of the worm or bug that is so disastrous to sun-dried fruit. Besides, the fruit dried on these machines are quite as good as fresh fruit when they are soaked in water a few minutes before being used. For this reason alone ships on long voyages want them. With plenty of this fruit on a voyage there is not the least danger of scurvy—a disease which gives the greatest trouble in the navy. Besides the fruit, all kinds of vegetables which grow in the gardens can be desiccated and kept any length of time and made as good as the day there were gathered from the garden by putting them in cold water for thirty minutes before cooking. Now with these facts before us and with the advantages we have of raising vegetables and fruits the year round, what hinders this country or all the counties in Southern California from becoming the "garden-spot of America." It is demonstrated that all our brushy foot-hills will grow vegetables and orchards without water, and every five acres of valley land will support a family planted in vegetables and trees and watered by a windmill.

WASHINGTON, May 25th.—The U. S. Coast Survey office reports the existence of a dangerous rock inside Blunt's reef, off Cape Mendocino, Cal. There is no help near it. Vessels are cautioned against passing between Blunt's reef and the cape.

Pacific Mail.

NEW YORK, May 25th.—A meeting of the Pacific Mail Directors is to be held to-morrow to take into consideration the fact that the Panama Directors refuse to negotiate for the renewal of the contract with the Pacific Mail Company, which terminates July 6th. The election for Directors of the Pacific Mail Company will also take place to-morrow, being in advance of the regular time.

A Rock off Cape Mendocino.

WASHINGTON, May 25th.—The U. S. Coast Survey office reports the existence of a dangerous rock inside Blunt's reef, off Cape Mendocino, Cal. There is no help near it. Vessels are cautioned against passing between Blunt's reef and the cape.

Election in Rhode Island.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., May 25th.—The General Assembly to-day elected Henry Tippett Governor and Henry T. Lissom Lieutenant-Governor.

Foreign News.

LONDON, May 25th.—The Mark Lane Express says that the drought is being felt in France, and a poor yield is probable. This will make the present low rates of short duration. In the continental market the prices are yet weak and from sixpence to a shilling lower.

BERLIN, May 25th.—The Upper House of the Prussian Diet has passed bills for the suppression of Convents and relating to the administration of church property.

The Government, fearing disturbances, forbade processions in honor of the Pope's jubilee.

LONDON, May 26th.—The Daily News special from Vienna says that a person has been arrested in that city who was the bearer of an anonymous letter containing an offer to assassinate Bismarck for one million florins. The writer is unknown.

Eric's Troubles.

NEW YORK, May 25th.—The Times says that all stock jobbing operations on one side or the other cannot save Eric from going into the hands of a receiver. The exposure of a year ago clearly foreshadowed that result.

How it was Done.

SALEM, Oreg., May 25th.—Cox, the man arrested on the charge of conspiracy to release the prisoners confined in the penitentiary here, was to day held to appear at the next term of the Circuit Court in the sum of $500. Public opinion seems to be that he is innocent and that there is nothing in the case, but that it was trumped up by the convict Wilson, having in view a mitigation of his sentence.

Luttrell Scareden.

SHASTA, May 25th.—Last evening the Hon. J. K. Luttrell, was arraigned and waited upon by a concourse of citizens, to whom he made a brief address, which was enthusiastically received.

From Sacramento.

SACRAMENTO, May 23d.—The scariest fever in its most violent form prevails in this city at the present time, and has proved fatal in many cases, some families having lost two or three children, and in one instance a family named Murphy lost a child yesterday, and four more are now stricken with disease.

Horrible Crime in a Belfry.

BOSTON, May 23d.—About 4 o'clock this afternoon people passing by the Baptist Church, corner of Warren Avenue and West Clinton street, were startled by loud and piercing screams, which proceeded from the belfry of the church. Some gentlemen who happened to be passing rushed into the church and up to the door leading to the bell tower. Finding them forced it and discovered in the belfry a girl of three or four years of age lying on the floor, her face and head covered with blood from two wounds on her head, from one of which the brains were oozing. A cricket bat covered with blood was found near making it evident that the child was assaulted in the room below, carried up the ladder and the trap doorway. The child was carried to a neighbor's house and a doctor summoned, but no hopes are entertained of her recovery. The circumstances point strongly toward Thomas W. Piper, the sexton of the church, who was the only one in the building at the time, and he was promptly arrested. The child's name is Mabel Young, and she is the daughter of a wealthy widow, and granddaughter of Mr. Hobbs of the firm of Hobbs, Hope & Co. It is supposed that after Sunday School was dismissed the sexton dragged the child into the room under the belfry, where he committed the bloody deed.

The insinuation of "A Citizen" that the Express is doing an injury to itself by opposing the passage of the ordinance is, we suppose, intended to apply also to the HERALD. We appreciate the manifestation of solicitude, but in advocating the public welfare the HERALD is not in the habit of stopping to consider the effect its policy will have upon its subscription list. NEW YORK, May 24th.—The Brooklyn court-room was crowded to-day,

Porter resumed his argument for the defendant. He referred to the letters of contrition, which was the only known instance in which a man had written a letter to himself. This man, who was master of every intellectual department, when he came into Moulton's presence was like an untutored schoolboy. Another feature of the letter was that Beecher refused to sign it. Counsel referred to the two statements made by Moulton in regard to the scandal, and said he copied them from Tilton's drafts. They were the result of a fortnight's work by Benj. Butler. It was Tilton who gave directions for carrying out the schemes which originated in his fertile brain. Frank Moulton was a shaman from the beginning. The declaration of Tilton and who go over to Santa Cruz with him.

The Republican primary passed off yesterday very quietly. A light vote was polled and the Gorham and Shannan party had things of their own way without opposition.

The first shipment of cherries from Petaluma this season was made on the 12th instant by J. W. Cassidy, who has an orchard of 400 bearing trees. The dates at which Mr. Cassidy's earliest cherries have ripened in quantities sufficient for shipment are as follows: "1870, May 21; 1871, May 26; 1872, May 14; 1874, May 22; 1875, May 12.

NEW TO-DAY.

The Los Angeles and Independence Railroad.

From Shoo Fliv (about your boderme) Landings is being rapidly constructed, and will be a great benefit to this city, but it is to be compensated for by the high cost of labor, smokers' articles, gents' furnishings and fancy goods which is always to be had at the well known houses of the interior. They should be examined by everyone before purchasing elsewhere. A fine fitting shirt with a nice tie, worth 25¢, is to be had for 12¢, a necktie, 12¢, a pet dog with an English collar, a twobit or threebit hat Bouquet (in a meerschaum holder), such is life. All this can be enjoyed at the "identicals."

Heavy Suit Against Tweed.

NEW YORK, May 25th.—The motion for a bill of particulars in the six million dollar suit against Tweed was to be heard in the Supreme Court Chambers to-day. On the case being called, Judge Lawrence stated that he considered himself disqualified from hearing the motion on the ground of having been consulted as counsel in regard to the Keyser bills. He therefore set the case for the first Monday in June, when another Judge will hold the ch-

THE SCHOLARS OF THE EXAMINED CLASSES have been dismissed until to-morrow afternoon, when the table of promotion for the term will be read.

Mr. Kilpatrick's temperance lecture last evening at Good Templars' Hall was well attended and received with marked attention.

From the summit of the Cajon Pass, the hills around Panamint can be seen, though the distance is a hundred miles.

The latest novelty in the picture line is the "promenade photograph," first introduced in Los Angeles by Williams & Smith, at their Cottage Gallery.

The delinquent list was proven by evidence (to which no objection was taken) to be correct, but the statute does not declare that the delinquent list shall be prima facie evidence of the correctness of the prior proceedings.

The provisions of Sec. 26, of the Act of 1850, to provide for the incorporation of cities, do not have that effect.

The proceedings of the Board of Equalization, by which the valuation was increased, were defective and erroneous in this, no complaint was filed with the Board, and the defendant was not personally notified in writing that the valuation of his property had been raised by the Board, as required in the fifth section of the ordinance set forth in the record. People vs. Reynolds, 28 Cal., 107; People vs. Flint, 39 Cal., 670; and People vs. Goldtree, 44 Cal., 324, held that the filing of the complaint is indispensable to give the Board jurisdiction to increase the valuation of property.

The recovery for the taxes, percentage and costs upon the sum of fifteen thousand dollars (the amount added to the valuation by the Board) cannot be sustained.

Cause remanded, with directions to modify the judgment in accordance with this opinion. RHODES, J.

The Philadelphia Brewery.

Among the recent purchases in real estate, we find that Mr. Henry Lemmert has invested in the lots on each side of his brewery, which give his property a front of 260 feet on Aliso street and a depth of 200 feet, running back to Sansevaine street. These purchases give Mr. Lemmert an elegant site for a residence, in a small orange grove on one side of his brewery, and make him the possessor of the mammoth sycamore tree of Southern California, on the other side. He now has abundant room to spread, and expects in a short time to have a capacity of 50,000 barrels of beer per day.

Coming from Cincinnati, a city famous for its beer, Mr. Lemmert claims that he is now making as good an article of beer as the brewers of Cincinnati.

His improvements are on a grand scale and soon his machinery will be run by power, as the increased trade demands better facilities than formerly.

From the vaults, where King Gambrinus guards the foaming beverage, to the attic, where the malt is drying, everything is complete, making this one of the best breweries in California.

Travelers' Home.

The well known trotter, Confinde, died last night at Keith & Donahue's stable, from the effects of a collision with the shaft of a buggy, which entered the flank, penetrating to a depth of twelve inches and breaking off. It was a promising animal and valued at $4,000.

Judge Wiseman dropped in last night to inform us that he had decided to defer the publication of the Broad-Axe until the Independent Peoples' ticket is made up. The first number will come with the ticket. The Broad-Axe will be published in this city, and not at Anaheim, as heretofore announced.

This evening a meeting of the new fire company will be held at Messmer's cellar, corner of Requena and Main streets. The object of the meeting is for organization and election of officers. Members of ex-Los Angeles No. 1 and all citizens interested are invited to attend.

A visit to the new depot yesterday, we found a large force of carpenters hurrying the building to an early completion. When finished, it will be the most complete and elegant structure in Southern California, and of sufficient capacity for a city of fifty thousand inhabitants or a railroad centre like Los Angeles.

Yesterday Dr. Cunningham of this city received a box marked "Product of Missouri; one hundred and fifty bushels to the acre; can California beat it?" The Doctor was anxious to see what would grow in Missouri at the rate of one hundred and fifty bushels to the acre, and hastened to open the box, which he was astonished to find filled with emaciated grasshoppers. California cannot "beat it."

To-morrow the teachers will meet in the Superintendent's office to prepare the monthly and annual reports required by law and to determine by examining their records what pupils are entitled to promotion. The graduating exercises will be held in the evening in Turn-Verein Hall. The following pupils, having completed the prescribed course of studies, will receive the diplomas they so richly deserve; viz.: Misses Yda Addis, Addie Gates, Lillie Milliken, Jessie Peel and Mary Thomas, and Messrs. Henry Leek and Henry W. O'Melveny.

The school examinations yesterday were quite satisfactory to the throng of visitors present, the children acquitted themselves admirably. As this is the last day of the examination, we urge parents and friends to attend. The following is the programme:

Forenoon—Miss Scott's class, Second Grade, Primary.

Mrs. Parker's class, Eighth street.

Mr. Withrow's class, Leek's Hall.

Afternoon—Mr. Smith's class, Bath street.

Miss Rodgers' class, Bath street.

Miss Hamilton's class, Third Grade, Primary.

A Card.

In response to the communication of "A Citizen," published in the Express of Tuesday, the undersigned submit the following:

"Citizen" forgets the objective point named in the ordinance before its modification, and he certainly could not have been on the ground or could not with truth assert that there is seventy-five feet between the railroad track and the sidewalk at that point.

The President of the Spring street road wrote the proposed modification and handed it to a Councilman, who inserted it in the body of the ordinance while the Council was in session.

This street, as is well known, was a much traveled thoroughfare before the laying out of East Los Angeles, and we all know that it is to-day more traveled than any other outlet on the East of the city. All who have been on the ground and are familiar with the facts, admit that the Herald gave a fair and accurate statement of all the connecting circumstantial evidence.

"Citizen" can satisfy any doubt he may have with reference to our fear of "an untimely taking off," by calling to the memory that he will be referred to the asylums for treatment as soon as he is able to travel, his health being now very much impaired.

The Little People.

Uncle—"How did the mother of Moses hide him?" Niece—"With a stick."

"Are angels playing croquet, mamma?" asked a little four-year-old girl the other evening, when she saw the meteors shoot.

First class in geography: What is a bay? Father's best horse. What is a sound? A thunder clap. What is a strait? Whisky without water. What is a cape? Something to wear on the shoulders.

"Then you won't lend me that lime now, eh?" inquired one boy of another in the Postoffice on Saturday. "No, I won't." "All right, then; next time our chimney burns out you shan't come into our yard and holler."

A boy was around one of the hotels to get a job of blacking boots, when a guest asked him: "Sonny, did you hear that the world was coming to an end to-morrow?" "Great snakes!" No" exclaimed the boy, instantly becoming excited; "where can a feller buy some tickets?"

The Rev. Mr. Bliss, a revivalist, denounced the street songs of the period before a Nashville Tenn. audience, the other day, and while mentioning the refrain "I feel it" etc., an urchin among the audience joined in, supplying the missing words, much to the amusement of the crowd.

An Inspector (who notices a backwardness in his history)—"Who signed Magna Charta?"—"No answer." Inspector (more urgently)—"Who signed Magna Charta?"—"No answer." Inspector (angrily)—"Who signed Magna Charta?"—Scapegrace (thinking matters are beginning to look serious)—"Please, sir, 'twasan't me, sir," Punch.

A Porter street boy came across something the other day which he thought would give his father a shock of surprise, and he stood before the old man and remarked: "Give me a place to rest my lever and I will move the world." The father looked at him a half a minute, and then replied: "I'll move you if you don't clean off that back yard this afternoon!"—Detroit Free Press.

A little three-year-old boy living in Bridgewater attended the services held by Mr. Earl, the Evangelist. The next morning the little fellow, while playing on the floor, suddenly broke out: "Mamma, I don't want to go to heaven!" "Why not, my little son?" Because Mr. Earl said we must give up father and mother, brother and sister, if we expected to get there and I don't care about doing that."

All Sorts.

Now this is a disappointment. Mr. Rice Sup William Allen, of Ohio, grandfather of the celebrated Ethan Allen of Revolutionary fame, will not be able to attend the Ticonderoga Centennial, on account of other engagements. He promises to be there, however, in 1875.

An aristocratic organ-grinder of Boston is described as a French Baronet, speaking the purest Parisian French, and carrying about on her instrument the Cross of the Legion of Honor, bestowed in other times upon her spouse.

Years ago the pretty school teacher used to collar the boys and wallop 'em one day and kiss 'em the next. Between the two however, they enjoyed matters. The school ma'am of today collars the boys the same, and pounds them just as hard, but a tall chap with a black mustache comes around and gets in enough of the other work for the whole school; and who says this is not an age of monopoly?

Miss Braddon is about to write a novel in which the hero and heroine elope across the English channel in Captain Boynton's life dresses, while the enraged parents follow behind with a pair of cork floats becomes exhausted, and is taken on board by the happy pair, whom he then and there forgives blisses.

A sunday school scholar, who has evidently been reading the papers, was patted on the head by a benevolent visitor recently, and asked if he would like to grow to be a great man like George Washington. With a sweet smile the gentle boy replied: "Not much! I'd like to be like Jesse Pomroy, to be locked up for killing little girls, and to be hung, with a big crowd all around a looking on and holding."
